Sheriff Arpaio's response to the United States' first discovery requests, with rolling responses in the interim as information becomes available. Counsel for the United States and the County agreed on May 22, 2013, to extend the time for the County's discovery responses to June 18, 2013.

Before the United States filed its Complaint in May 2013, Counsel for the United States, Sheriff Arpaio, and the County conferred between December 2011 and April 2012 in an effort to reach a mutually agreeable resolution to the United States' concerns in this matter. The parties were unable to reach an agreement. Since the Rule 26(f) meetings in December, the parties have continued to confer about the possibility of settling the claims raised in the United States' Complaint, but have not reached an agreement.
